MEMORANDUM FOR: Office of General Counsel

SUBJECT : Reimbursement for Transportation in Relocating from California to Washington

Point 1

I took leave to meet my wife in Boise and to travel with her in Montana and into Wyoming for personal reasons.

Point 2

As far as I know, I have not asked for any reimbursement for my flying back and forth on that trip and I don't intend to.

Point 3

If the question is one of an unnecessarily long route in my wife's travel across the country and any extra expenses from the time taken, I suggest reimbursement based on either (a) actual expenses minus a deduction from her claimed expenses amounting to the days we detoured which I calculate at about 20% of the direct route across the country, or (b) payment based on a standard rate for transporting a car and person across the country.
